

31st Annual R. B. Hall Day—June 25, 2011

McGill's Community Band of Houlton, Maine, invites you to participate in the 31st annual R.B. Hall Day on Saturday, June 25, 2011, at Monument Park in Houlton.

- We will be performing in our wonderful amphitheater
- McGill's Band concerts draw an audience of 300 plus people on Thursday evenings
- In case of rain, we will perform in the new Houlton High School 600 seat auditorium
- Performance schedule will be sent to registered participants
- Each band will have 30-40 minutes to perform (depending on the number of groups)
- The massed band will perform at noon.....musical selections to follow
- Percussion, music stands and band seating will be provided
- Food vendors, toilet facilities and parking will be available near Monument Park
- Area accommodations, information and events will be provided
- More information will be available soon at mcgillsband.com and rbhallday.wordpress.com

Please complete the attached registration form by April 15, 2011, and return by email to:

maclark8234@gmail.com or by snailmail to: Michael Clark, P.O. Box 745, Houlton, ME 04730

McGill's Community Band and the Houlton community are proud to host this special day of music featuring Maine's own "March King". We hope you will plan to attend and experience northern Maine hospitality!

Sincerely,

Michael Clark
Manager
McGill's Community Band